    a. Streaming Platform available at: https://kongres.oees.pl/liveoees,
    b. Registration System available at: https://kongres.oees.pl/bilety/.
12. Registration System - a system enabling the Participant to register for the Congress, available at https://kongres.oees.pl/bilety/.
13. Participant - a natural adult person entitled to participate in the Congress.

II. I. General provisions

1. These Regulations set out the conditions of attending the Congress, as well as the specific rights and obligations of the Participant.
2. Acceptance of the Regulations is a requirement for registration and participation in the Congress and use of the Website.
3. Participants are obliged to comply with the provisions of the Regulations.
4. In matters related to the use of the Website or participation in the Congress, the Organiser can be contacted by e-mail, at rejestracja@oees.pl, or by telephone at +48 534 881 236.

III. Registration

1. The registration process for Congress Participants is possible from 21 May 2026 to 18 November 2026, exclusively, through the registration form available in the Registration System.
2. Participation in the Congress as the Participant is chargeable. The cost of participation is indicated in the price list available on the Website.
3. The cost indicated in the price list refers to the participation of one person in the Congress.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to terminate the sale of tickets before the start of the Congress or the date specified in section III(1) of the Regulations.
5. Participation in the Congress takes the following forms:
    a. online - attending the Congress via the Streaming Platform,
    b. on-site with online access - participation in the Congress both on-site at the Venue and online on the Streaming Platform.
6. The Organiser distinguishes the following types of tickets:
    a. Online Congress ticket - entitles the holder to participate online in all the sessions included in the Agenda and unlimited access to the Streaming Platform,
    b. On-site Congress ticket with online access - entitles the holder to enter the Venue during the Congress, attend all the sessions included in the Agenda and have access to partner stands, exhibitions, etc., receive a welcome pack of Congress materials, and have unlimited access to the Streaming Platform.
7. Application for participation in the Congress is made by completing and sending the registration form available in the Registration System.
8. The Organiser distinguishes the following categories of Participants registering for the Congress:
    a. Participant - a natural person entitled to participate in the Congress,
    b. Media - a natural person representing the editorial office of a national, local or trade media outlet.

c. Volunteer - a natural person who voluntarily and knowingly provides services to the Organiser without remuneration,
d. Student - an adult natural person under 26 years of age who is enrolled in a higher education institution and holds a valid student or doctoral student ID card.

9. Students are entitled to attend the Congress free of charge, provided that they
    a. register using the registration form available in the Registration System; and
    b. hold a valid student ID card, demonstrating this during the registration process by providing the student ID card number and the name of the higher education institution that issued it.
10. Media are entitled to attend the Congress free of charge upon accreditation, provided that they
    a. register using the registration form available in the Registration System; and
    b. provide, as part of the registration process, the name of the national, local or trade media outlet they represent.
11. The Organiser may verify, during accreditation for on-site participation in the Congress, including when issuing Participant Badges, whether the Student holds a valid student ID card and whether the Media Representative represents a national, local or trade media outlet. Such verification may include, in particular, the presentation of a valid student ID card or press card.
12. In order to purchase group tickets, it is necessary to fill in, in addition to the data indicated in Section 13 below, the first and last names as well as the e-mail addresses of all Participants who will be included in the group ticket, as part of the registration made via the registration form available in the Registration System. After registration, an email will be sent to Participants other than those completing the form, together with the relevant link, for their acceptance of the Regulations, once they have read them. Lack of acceptance of the Regulations by one of the Participants will result in the Organiser's failure to accept the offer and conclude the agreement for participation in the Congress (as indicated in Section 20 below).
13. In the registration form, Participants must provide the following details: full name, email address (to which the ticket and organisational information regarding the Congress will be sent), telephone number, as well as the name of the institution they represent and their position. Furthermore, in order to receive a VAT invoice (including a structured invoice issued via the National e-Invoicing System - KSeF) in the name of an entity that is not Consumer, the Participant is required to provide the following billing details: the entity’s full name, registered office address (street, building and unit number, postal code and city/town), and VAT identification number (NIP). Providing a VAT identification number (NIP) is a prerequisite for the issuance of a VAT invoice to a legal person, an organisational unit without legal personality, or a natural person conducting business activity.
14. In the registration form, the Participant can use a discount code (if the Participant has received one). If the Participant, despite having a discount code, does not provide the number of this code during the registration process, they lose the right to obtain the discount, and the registration is subject to the payment conditions indicated in the price list.
15. Before sending the registration form, Participants are obliged to familiarise themselves with the content of these Regulations and Regulations of the Website. By completing, accepting and submitting the registration form to the Organiser, the Participant makes an offer to the Organiser to enter into an agreement for participation in the Congress.

16. The Regulations provide for the following payment methods:
    a. online payment via Przelewy24 (using the payment methods available during the ticket purchase process, including, in particular, instant bank transfer and BLIK),
    b. traditional payment - by bank transfer to the Organiser's bank account held with ING Bank Śląski S.A., with the following number PL91 1050 1445 1000 0090 8000 6902 (IBAN) (SWIFT: INGBPLPW).
17. Payment for participation in the Congress shall be made in Polish currency (PLN). It is also possible to pay for participation in the Congress in a different currency, for this purpose please contact the Organiser via e-mail address at rejestracja@oees.pl, or by phone at +48 534 881 236.
18. The Participant consents to the issuance and delivery of electronic VAT invoices to the e-mail address provided in the registration form. For businesses and institutions (holding a VAT identification number (NIP)), the Organiser will issue a structured invoice through the National e-Invoicing System (KSeF) and send its PDF representation to the e-mail address provided by the Participant. In the case of natural persons not conducting business activity, the Organiser will send a standard electronic VAT invoice in PDF format.
19. Where payment by traditional bank transfer is selected, the Organiser will send a pro forma invoice to the Participant's e-mail address within 7 days of the date of registration. The participation fee for the Congress must be paid within 3 days of receipt of the pro forma invoice to the bank account specified therein.
20. Upon verification and receipt of the payment, the Organiser will send the Participant, to the e-mail address provided, a registration confirmation, a personalised ticket (corresponding to the selected participation format), and a VAT invoice or a PDF representation of the structured invoice issued through KSeF (in accordance with the rules set out in Section 19), provided that the Participant has requested an accounting document. The agreement for participation in the Congress between the Organiser and the Participant, or the entity represented by the Participant, is concluded upon the sending of that e-mail.
21. The payer (recipient of the invoice) is the entity indicated by the Participant in the registration form.
22. The Participant is obliged to indicate the payer of the invoice (invoice recipient) to whom the document will be issued. The Participant may change the payer within 7 days of the invoice date. Information requesting a change of payer should be submitted by e-mail at finanse@fundacjagap.pl. The information must indicate the invoice number, the existing payer designation, the name of the new payer, and the name of the Congress Participant.
23. In justified cases and upon written request of the payer, it is possible to issue a paper invoice within 30 days of the payment.
24. The Organiser allows changes to be made to the list of participants. Information on a change of Participant should be reported to the Organiser no less than 5 days before the start of the Congress. Any change of Participant requires the completion of a new registration form and notification of the change by the Participant by e-mail at rejestracja@oees.pl, together with details of the persons to whom the change relates.

IV. Terms and conditions for Congress online participation

1. The Participant who is entitled to take part in the Congress online shall register via the Registration System. Upon completion of the registration process, the Participant will receive a Congress ticket at the e-mail address provided in the registration form, and access to the event will be assigned automatically.
2. The use of the Streaming Platform may only take place according to the terms and scope indicated in the Regulations and Website Regulations.
3. Minimum technical requirements to use the Streaming Platform:
    a. a device with Internet access,
    b. access to e-mail,
    c. the latest version of browser with Cookies and Java Script enabled,
    d. software to read PDF files,
    e. an active and properly configured data transmission service provided by the telecommunications operator on the device used by the User, or an active wireless Internet connection.
4. During the Congress held via the Streaming Platform, it is strictly prohibited to photograph, record or otherwise capture, in any form or by any means, any content displayed or transmitted through the Streaming Platform.

V. Terms and conditions for Congress on-site participation

1. The Participant entitled to participate in the Congress on-site, who registered via the Website will receive a Congress ticket to the e-mail address indicated in the registration form, which must be kept and presented at the reception desk at the Venue. Possession of a valid Congress ticket is a condition for admission to the Congress.
2. In the event that, by virtue of legal regulations, restrictions are imposed on the organisation of conferences and congresses, which prohibit the presence of Congress Participants at the venue, the Organiser reserves the right to organise the Congress online and to cancel on-site Congress tickets in this respect. In such a case, the ticket entitling the User to participate on-site will be changed to a ticket entitling the User to participate exclusively online and the price difference will be refunded to the User within 30 days from the date of the decision to change the Congress formula. The User whose ticket has been changed has the right to withdraw from the agreement within 14 days of the Organiser's notification of the change in the form of participation by sending the Organiser a written statement of withdrawal by registered letter to the Organiser's address or electronically to the e-mail address at rejestracja@oees.pl.
3. In the event that restrictions on the organisation of conferences and congresses are imposed by law, the Organiser reserves the right to require the presentation of additional documents upon accreditation of Congress on-site participation, to the extent that this is in compliance with the aforementioned legal provisions, which may include, in particular, a current vaccination certificate.
4. In the event that legal regulations impose restrictions on the organisation of conferences and congresses which reduce the possible number of Congress participants at the Venue, the Organiser will inform the last registered participants of the possible change of the form of participation from on-site to online. The number of people participating on-site will depend on current government guidelines. In the case of changing the form of participation from on-site to online, the order of registration will be decisive. If the status of the change of the Participant from on-site to online takes place on the basis of the Organiser's unilateral decision, the Organiser will return to the Participant the participation fee paid. Apart from the reimbursement of the fee referred to in the preceding sentence, the Participant shall not be entitled to any claims against the Organiser (e.g. for reimbursement of costs incurred for transport or accommodation).

5. The Organiser does not cover transport and accommodation costs for Congress Participants.
6. During the Congress, it is strictly prohibited to photograph, record or otherwise capture, in any form or by any means, any content displayed during the Congress.
7. Given the nature of the Congress as a socially relevant and international event, gathering a large number of participants and taking place simultaneously on-site and online, the Participant acknowledges that photographs and video recordings may be made during the Congress. By registering for the Congress and accepting these Regulations, the Participant consents to the recording of their image in photographs and video recordings made during the Congress and to the use and dissemination of such image for the organisational and promotional purposes of the Organiser and the Congress Partners and Sponsors. The Participant also consents to the processing of their personal data in the form of their image for these purposes.

VI. Terms of use of the Website

1. Use of the Website and all its functions requires access to the Internet and the use of a standard web browser.
2. In order to ensure the security of data transmission transmitted via the Website, the Organiser applies technical and organisational measures appropriate to the degree of risk associated with the use of the Website.
3. The User is obliged to comply with the Website Regulations, in particular:
    a) not to provide content that causes dysfunction or overload of the Website or the systems used by entities directly or indirectly involved in the provision of electronic services,
    b) not to provide content that may violate the personal interests of third parties, copyrights, intellectual property rights, trade secrets or that may in any other way violate the applicable legal order or good morals,
    c) not to transmit content containing computer viruses or other malicious software such as "worms", "trojan horses", "keyloggers" or other,
    d) not to submit or transmit content that results in the dissemination of unsolicited commercial communications (spam) or any other content prohibited by law.

VII. Complaints

1. The Participant may submit any complaint to the following e-mail address at rejestracja@oees.pl or in writing to the Organiser's registered address.
2. A complaint about the conduct of the Congress may be submitted within 14 days of the end of the Congress. The date of lodging a complaint shall be the date on which the complaint is received by the Organiser. This term does not apply to Consumer and Prosumer Participants. Complaints submitted after the deadline specified in the paragraph above will not be considered.
3. The Organiser undertakes to examine the complaint immediately, no later than within 30 days of its submission. Complaints submitted by a Consumer or Prosumer Participant under the statutory warranty for defects will be considered within 14 days of receipt.

VIII. Withdrawal from participation

1. Under the terms and conditions set out in these Regulations, the Participant may withdraw from participation in the Congress (contractual right of withdrawal).
2. The Participant who has paid the participation fee for the Congress may withdraw from the agreement for participation in the Congress no later than 11 November 2026 by submitting a written notice of withdrawal to the Organiser either by registered mail to the Organiser's registered office address or electronically to rejestracja@oees.pl.
3. In the event of the Participant's withdrawal from participation in the Congress, the Organiser will refund all or the applicable part of the participation fee (in accordance with paragraph 4 below) to the bank account from which the payment was made. The participation fee will be refunded within 30 days on the basis of a credit note accepted by the Participant.
4. In the event that the Participant withdraws from participation in the Congress, the participation fee paid will be refunded in accordance with the following terms (the date on which the notice of withdrawal referred to in Section VIII(1)(2) of these Regulations is received by the Organiser shall be decisive):
    a) withdrawal submitted no later than 29 September 2026 - a full refund of the participation fee to the bank account from which the payment was made;
    b) withdrawal submitted no later than 9 November 2026 - a 50% refund of the participation fee to the bank account from which the payment was made;
    c) withdrawal submitted after 9 November 2026 - the Participant shall not be entitled to a refund of the participation fee.
5. In the event of a withdrawal submitted after the applicable deadline, the Organiser shall be entitled to retain the participation fee paid.
6. Given the nature of the Congress, Consumers and Prosumers do not have the right to withdraw from an agreement concluded at a distance on the basis of the Consumer Rights Act pursuant to Article 38(1)(12), i.e. because it is a contract for the provision of services related to entertainment, sports or cultural events and the agreement specifies the day or period of service provision.

IX. Regulations concerning Congress on-site participation

1. Access to the Venue where the programme events of the Congress take place is granted exclusively to Accredited On-site Congress Participants.
2. The Participant becomes the Accredited On-site Congress Participant upon completing accreditation at the Congress reception desk and collecting their personalised Participant Badge.
3. Participants are required to wear their Participant Badges visibly throughout the Congress or present them upon request by the Organiser. Lack of the Participant Badge entitles the Organiser to ask the Participant to leave the Venue. The Participant may not transfer their Participant Badge to another person. The Congress Ticket is personal and assigned to a specific Participant. Each Participant should have a paper or electronic ticket with them when entering the Congress Venue in order to present it to the Organiser.
4. Persons who have lost or otherwise misplaced their Participant Badge may obtain a duplicate Participant Badge in accordance with the instructions provided by the Organiser.
5. The Accredited On-site Congress Participant is obliged to observe the Venue's OHS and fire safety rules in force. The document containing the aforementioned rules and regulations is available on the Venue's website.
6. Congress Participants are obliged to behave in a manner that does not endanger the safety of other Participants, observe the law and the Regulations, as well as to comply immediately with the instructions of the security services. It is prohibited to obstruct or block exits, emergency evacuation routes, or any other equipment required for rescue or firefighting operations during the Congress.

7. The Organiser shall not be liable for any damage caused to the Participant as a result of force majeure.
8. Participants at the Congress are obliged to respect the rights and personal dignity of other Participants. It is strictly forbidden to harass other Participants. Harassment includes, but is not limited to, abusive verbal comments relating to sex, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnic origin or religion, deliberate intimidation, stalking, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. Furthermore, during the Congress, it is prohibited to use words or symbols generally recognised as unacceptable, including vulgar language, expressions that may offend religious or philosophical beliefs, or expressions or symbols that promote or constitute discrimination.
9. It is prohibited to damage or destroy signs and information boards, advertising displays, equipment and other property located within the Congress Venue. Participants are obliged to use the sanitary facilities only for their intended purpose.
10. It is prohibited to possess firearms, explosives, pyrotechnic materials or sharp instruments within the Congress Venue.
11. The Organiser does not take responsibility for stolen, lost or damaged items left in the cloakroom or throughout the Venue during the Congress.
12. The Organiser is not responsible for statements and presentations made during the programme events of the Congress.
13. The Organiser reserves the right to inspect personal baggage prior to entry to the Venue.

X. Regulations concerning online Congress participation

1. Access to the Congress online, in which the programme events of the Congress take place, is only available to Accredited Online Congress Participants.
2. Participants become Accredited Online Congress Participants after confirming their accreditation in the Streaming Platform by logging in with their names and email addresses.
3. The Accredited Online Congress Participant is obliged to observe the security rules and regulations that apply to the Streaming Platform.
4. The Organiser shall not be liable for any damage caused to the Participant as a result of force majeure.
5. Participants at the Congress are obliged to respect the rights and personal dignity of other Participants. Participants are strictly prohibited from harassing other Participants. Harassment includes, but is not limited to, abusive verbal comments relating to sex, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnic origin or religion, deliberate intimidation, stalking, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. Furthermore, during the Congress, it is prohibited to use words or symbols generally recognised as unacceptable, including vulgar language, expressions that may offend religious or philosophical beliefs, or expressions or symbols that promote or constitute discrimination.
6. The Organiser is not responsible for statements and presentations made during the programme events of the Congress.

XI. Information on the processing of Participants' personal data

The Organiser is the controller of the personal data of the Congress Participants (hereinafter also referred to as the “Controller”). The Controller may be contacted regarding matters relating to the processing of personal data by e-mail at biuro@fundacjagap.pl or biuro@oees.pl, or by telehone at + 48 12 423 76 05 or or by post to the Organiser's registered office address. Detailed information on the processing of personal data can be found in Privacy Policy.

XII. Final provisions

1. The Regulations are valid as of 21 May 2026 and are available on the website: www.kongres.oees.pl and in the Registration System.
2. Unless otherwise provided in these Regulations, all communication between the Organiser and the Participant who has submitted a registration form shall be conducted electronically. The Participant shall communicate using the e-mail address provided during registration, and the Organiser shall communicate using the e-mail address biuro@oees.pl or another e-mail address within the kongres.oees.pl or fundacjagap.pl domain.
3. The agreement concluded between the Participant and the Organiser concerning the services provided under the terms of these Regulations shall be governed by the Polish law.
4. All rights to the name of the Website, its graphic and functional concept, as well as rights to all text and graphic elements used on the Website, with the exception of elements originating from third parties (in particular logos of partners, media partners, sponsors, partner conferences/congresses, etc.), belong to the Organiser and may be used only on the basis of consent (licence) granted by the Organiser.
5. In case of doubt as to interpretation, the Polish text of the Regulations shall prevail.
6. The Organiser may make changes to the Regulations.
